Welcome to Hong Kong and take a ferry from Hong Kong Airport to Macau. Upon arrival to Macau you will enjoy the city tour where you visit the landmark of Macau - Ruins of St Paul. See the world biggest coil incense sticks and make a wish in front of the most popular God in Macau - The Goddess of Heaven, truly a World Heritage site and also a visit to the Macau tower and the Lotus Statue. The city also boasts some great shopping at Senado Square. Evening is free for leisure. Overnight stay in Macau.

Day 2: Macau

After breakfast, the whole day is free for you for shopping. The city boasts of some great shopping at Senado Square. Near by, the Sun Star City, on Rua de Pedro Nolasco and Sportstar a 2 storied arcade of specialty shops on Rua da Palha, offer a wide variety of clothing, watches and other stylish accessories. Avendia Horta e costa is a long street full of shops that begins with Red Market and extends as far as Flora Gardens beneath Guia Hill (a fortress with a chapel and Guia Lighthouse which are a symbol of Macau's maritime, military and missionary past).

The night, of course, has varied options. Macau (Macao) has plenty of casinos and with many newly developed new Casinos offer the widest range of games and with the name of "Las Vegas of the Orient". Macau has nearly twenty-eight casinos, of which the biggest is the The Venetian Macau. The Venetian, Casino Lisboa, Casa Real Casino, Mandarin oriental Casino, Sands Macao, MGM Grand Macao, Wynn Macao to name a few of the well known casino's in Macau. Overnight stay in Macau.

Day 3: Depart Macau

After your breakfast at the hotel its now time to say good bye to Macau with all the sweet memories of the tour where you can take the hotel's shuttle to the pier in Macau to take your ferry to Sky Pier at Hong Kong International Airport (HKIA) OR you take the ferry to KLN Pier and then you are transferred by coach to the airport.
